

The U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Statistics: 2009 report

The U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Statistics: 2009 report

- Plaintiff's "won" about half of tort trials. 51%

The U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Statistics: 2009 report

- Plaintiff's "won" about half of tort trials. 51%
- Median award was $24,000

The U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Statistics: 2009 report

- Plaintiff's "won" about half of tort trials. 51%
- Median award was $24,000
- Median award in auto cases was $15,000.

The U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Statistics: 2009 report

- Plaintiff's "won" about half of tort trials. 51%
- Median award was $24,000
- Median award in auto cases was $15,000.
- 15% of compensatory damages reduced post-trial—some to zero.

The U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Statistics: 2009 report

- Plaintiff's "won" about half of tort trials. 51%
- Median award was $24,000
- Median award in auto cases was $15,000.
- 15% of compensatory damages reduced post-trial—some to zero.
- In tort trials where plaintiffs prevailed, post-trial relief was sought at a similar rate by both plaintiffs and defendants. (16% and 18%)

The U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Statistics: 2009 report

- Plaintiff's "won" about half of tort trials. 51%
- Median award was $24,000
- Median award in auto cases was $15,000.
- 15% of compensatory damages reduced post-trial—some to zero.
- In tort trials where plaintiffs prevailed, post-trial relief was sought at a similar rate by both plaintiffs and defendants. (16% and 18%)
- Post-trial relief granted to 8% of plaintiffs who lost (mostly given new trials).

The U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Statistics: 2009 report

- Plaintiff's "won" about half of tort trials. 51%
- Median award was $24,000
- Median award in auto cases was $15,000.
- 15% of compensatory damages reduced post-trial—some to zero.
- In tort trials where plaintiffs prevailed, post-trial relief was sought at a similar rate by both plaintiffs and defendants. (16% and 18%)
- Post-trial relief granted to 8% of plaintiffs who lost (mostly given new trials).
- Post-trial relief granted to 30% of defendants who sought to modify a plaintiff's verdict—new trial or verdict reduction.

The U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Statistics: 2009 report

- Plaintiff's "won" about half of tort trials. 51%
- Median award was $24,000
- Median award in auto cases was $15,000.
- 15% of compensatory damages reduced post-trial—some to zero.
- In tort trials where plaintiffs prevailed, post-trial relief was sought at a similar rate by both plaintiffs and defendants. (16% and 18%)
- Post-trial relief granted to 8% of plaintiffs who lost (mostly given new trials).
- Post-trial relief granted to 30% of defendants who sought to modify a plaintiff's verdict—new trial or verdict reduction.
- Punitive damages awarded in 1.5% of cases

The U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Statistics: 2009 report

- Plaintiff's "won" about half of tort trials. 51%
- Median award was $24,000
- Median award in auto cases was $15,000.
- 15% of compensatory damages reduced post-trial—some to zero.
- In tort trials where plaintiffs prevailed, post-trial relief was sought at a similar rate by both plaintiffs and defendants. (16% and 18%)
- Post-trial relief granted to 8% of plaintiffs who lost (mostly given new trials).
- Post-trial relief granted to 30% of defendants who sought to modify a plaintiff's verdict—new trial or verdict reduction.
- Punitive damages awarded in 1.5% of cases
- Median punitive award was $55,000

The U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Statistics: 2009 report

- Plaintiff's "won" about half of tort trials. 51%
- Median award was $24,000
- Median award in auto cases was $15,000.
- 15% of compensatory damages reduced post-trial—some to zero.
- In tort trials where plaintiffs prevailed, post-trial relief was sought at a similar rate by both plaintiffs and defendants. (16% and 18%)
- Post-trial relief granted to 8% of plaintiffs who lost (mostly given new trials).
- Post-trial relief granted to 30% of defendants who sought to modify a plaintiff's verdict—new trial or verdict reduction.
- Punitive damages awarded in 1.5% of cases
- Median punitive award was $55,000
- Tort trials declined by a third between 1996 and 2005.

The U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Statistics: 2009 report

- Plaintiff's "won" about half of tort trials. 51%
- Median award was $24,000
- Median award in auto cases was $15,000.
- 15% of compensatory damages reduced post-trial—some to zero.
- In tort trials where plaintiffs prevailed, post-trial relief was sought at a similar rate by both plaintiffs and defendants. (16% and 18%)
- Post-trial relief granted to 8% of plaintiffs who lost (mostly given new trials).
- Post-trial relief granted to 30% of defendants who sought to modify a plaintiff's verdict—new trial or verdict reduction.
- Punitive damages awarded in 1.5% of cases
- Median punitive award was $55,000
- Tort trials declined by a third between 1996 and 2005.

Double tap to add title

- _____ D _____ P _____
- 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
10